EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

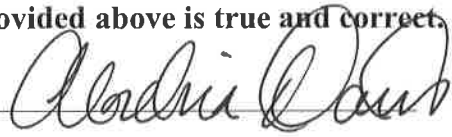

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

RETAINER AGREEMENT

I Alondria Davis request and authorize the staff of the Legal Assistance

Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago (LAF) to represent me as my lawyers regarding: _____

Filing Chapter 13 Bankruptcy

I understand that:

- LAF has not agreed to represent me until an LAF employee signs this retainer below.
- LAF will consider, among other things, the nature of my problem, the facts of my case, and LAF's ability to represent me.
- if my case is accepted, it is only for the representation described above or as limited by any matters set out in the "Special Circumstances" section below.
- if further representation is necessary, such as an appeal, the decision whether LAF will represent me will be made when it becomes necessary (see other side for details).
- if I fail to keep any of the following agreements, LAF may withdraw from representing me (see other side for details).
- LAF may assign this case to be worked on by a paralegal or law clerk working under the supervision of an attorney.

I agree:

- to cooperate fully with LAF
- to tell the truth about my case
- to help LAF get all the facts about my case
- to give LAF accurate information about my income and assets
- to tell LAF promptly of any change in my address or phone number
- to keep all court dates and all appointments with LAF

LAF agrees:

- to keep information about your case confidential, consistent with the ethical rules for lawyers
- to keep you informed about important developments in your case, and to respond to your reasonable requests for information about your case
- to consult with you before any significant decision or settlement in your case
- that you will not have to pay any lawyers' fees to LAF for the representation described above

Do not sign this agreement until you have read it or had it explained to you and you understand it.

Alondria Davis

The other side of this agreement sets forth your rights and responsibilities in greater detail.

Disclosure of information to others

I authorize LAF to disclose information concerning me or my legal problem to appropriate persons, but only to the extent necessary to properly represent me or to enable LAF to comply with state or federal law.

I understand that if a law suit is filed on my behalf in court, in most instances, federal law requires LAF to disclose: 1) my name and address; 2) the name and address of the opposing party; 3) a brief description of claims in the case; 4) the name and address of the court in which the case is filed and the case number. This information may become available to the general public.

Attorneys' Fees

LAF will not charge me for its work

In some cases, LAF may be able to claim attorneys' fees from the opposing party. I authorize LAF to seek, collect and keep attorneys' fees whenever it is permitted by law to do so, whether by obtaining a court order awarding fees, or through a settlement agreement with the opposing party.

Court-Related Costs

In the course of representing me, LAF may have to pay court costs on my behalf. These may include official fees for filing, recording documents, obtaining subpoenas for witnesses, and service of papers, as well as out-of-pocket costs for printing, copying, court reporters, transcripts, expert witnesses, and other such expenses. I understand and agree that I may have to repay such costs. LAF will try to get these costs waived whenever possible, and will do its best to inform me of the costs before they are incurred.

LAF may seek to recover such costs from the opposing party at the end of the case. If the court orders the other side to pay costs incurred by LAF, then I agree that the costs should be paid directly to LAF and not to me. If I am awarded a money judgment that does not specifically provide for the payment of costs, then I agree to repay LAF the costs it incurred, out of the money I receive. If I do not recover any money in my case, I am still responsible to reimburse LAF for the costs it incurred on my behalf, unless I cannot afford to do so.

Settlement

LAF will not settle any part of my case without my approval. LAF will inform me of any offers from the opposing party to settle the case. I agree not to settle my case without telling LAF first and providing LAF with the opportunity to discuss the proposed settlement with me.

Some opposing parties may offer a settlement that requires LAF to give up its right to attorneys' fees and costs. LAF depends on attorneys' fee awards to help continue its work. Settlements that require LAF to give up its right to fees and costs make it more difficult for LAF to provide legal services to other clients in need of help. In addition, holding opposing parties responsible for attorneys' fees and costs is a powerful way to prevent future unlawful conduct. For these reasons, LAF encourages clients to think carefully before accepting such an offer.

Complaint procedures

Anyone who has a complaint about the way service was provided (or not provided), is entitled to have that complaint reviewed in accordance with the following rules:

When a complaint is made, a supervisory attorney will review it and try to solve the problem. If the problem is not resolved to the satisfaction of the person complaining, the Supervisory Attorney will notify the person that he or she may have that complaint reviewed by the Executive Director, or his or her designee.

In the event that the Executive Director is unable to resolve a complaint, the Executive Director will notify the person that he or she may have the complaint reviewed by a committee or sub-committee of the Board of Directors of LAF.

All complaints will be reviewed within a reasonable period of time after they are made, but no longer than 60 days.

Ending this agreement

This is an agreement for a case, task or matter. When the case is over or the task is completed or the matter is resolved, this agreement ends. If I have a different legal problem or if an appeal is necessary, a new application for services is needed.

How I may end the agreement

I may end this agreement at any time by telling LAF, in writing, that I do not want its services any longer. Sometimes a court may require me to get its approval to end the agreement. If I end the agreement, LAF does not have to get another lawyer to represent me.

How LAF may end the agreement

LAF may end this agreement before my legal problem is completed for any one or more of the following reasons:

- LAF cannot locate me.
- I do not contact LAF when asked to do so, or I do not cooperate with my LAF attorney(s).
- I am no longer financially eligible under LAF's guidelines.
- I do not obey a court order which LAF advises me to obey.
- LAF determines that it would be ethically wrong to continue to represent me.
- Further work on the case would be only for the purpose of harassing or harming another person.
- If there are other reasons why LAF cannot continue to represent me, LAF will tell me what those reasons are.

After LAF starts to represent me in a case before a court or agency, it can withdraw from the case, but LAF must tell me before it attempts to do so. The notice must be in writing and mailed to me at my last known address.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
